

Table of Contents

Introduction

Sebastian Lohsse, Reiner Schulze & Dirk Staudenmayer

AI Contracting – Challenges, approaches, and the UN Model Law on Automated Contracting as a starting point for adapting contract law 9

Simona Staikova-van Bommel

The UNCITRAL Model Law on Automated Contracting 37

Conclusion of Contracts and Contracting Parties

Henry Gabriel

What does it mean to have “the intention to contract” in an AI Contract? 69

Teresa Rodríguez de las Heras Ballell

Legal Framework for AI Contracting: Key Rules on Validity, Attribution and Risk Allocation 93

Sebastian Schwamberger

The Party to an AI Contract: Navigating Attribution in Autonomous Transactions 123

Christoph Busch

Enabling Innovation and Protecting Consumers in the Agentic Economy: Why the Digital Fairness Act Should Regulate Agentic AI 151

Table of Contents

Attribution of Knowledge and Pre-Contractual Information Duties

Florian Möhle

AI Contracting and Contract Law (Default) Rules 171

Christian Twigg-Flesner

Attribution of Pre-contractual Information and Knowledge: the ELI Model Rules on Digital Assistants for Consumer Contracts and beyond 199

Eliza Mik

Contract Law in the Middle of an AI Summer 219

Defects of Consent and Unexpected Outcomes

Christiane Wendehorst

When things go wrong – dealing with unexpected outcomes in automated contracting 247

ANNEX: Version 3.0 of the Principles for AI in Contracting (PAIC) 274

Thomas Rübner

Vices of consent and AI contracting 303